

University of Pecs

The International Ph.D Program in Business Administration

The "Combined Solution" to Taxation of Foreign
Trusts in Israel

by

Daddy Yacov

2008

University of Pecs
The International Ph.D Program in Business Administration

The "Combined Solution" to Taxation of Foreign
Trusts in Israel

Submitted to
Prof. Ivan Belyacz

by
Daddy Yacov

2008

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	I
List of Illustrations	V
List of Tables	V
Chapter One: Introduction	1
1.1 Pros and cons of taxation of foreign trusts	7
1.1.1 The pros of taxing trusts	7
Chapter Two: Review of the Literature	9
2.1 Preface	9
2.2 A survey of the situation worldwide	9
2.3 Tax evasion solutions – Trusts and tax havens	10
2.3.1 Profile of an investor in tax havens	10
2.4 Foreign trust funds and tax havens as added value	11
2.4.1 Lists of tax havens	11
2.4.2 Additional lists	12
2.5 What is a trust?	13
2.6 Tax avoidance trusts	14
2.6.1 Problems with trust assets	14
2.6.2 The trust as a corporation	14
2.6.3 Reasons for creating trusts	14
2.7 Types of trusts	15
2.8 Trust usage in private banking	18
2.8.1 Holding of financial assets in a private bank	18
2.9 Legal solutions	19
2.10 A comparative review of trusts worldwide	19
2.10.1 The situation in Israel compared to other countries	21
2.10.2 A global survey of the handling of tax planning	22
2.11 Taxation of trusts in American law	25
2.11.1 Types of foreign trust income subordinate to American taxation	26
2.11.2 Additional issues	27
2.12 British law	27
2.12.2 Taxation of local trusts under British law	29
2.12.3 International taxation of British trusts	33
2.13 South African trust taxation	34
2.13.1 Interpretation according to general law	34
2.13.2 Two possible obligations	34
2.14 Taxation of trusts in Australia	35
2.14.1 Interpretation of basic concepts according to general trust law	35

2.14.2	The definition of trustee	35
2.15	Taxation of trusts according to Canadian law	36
2.15.1	Canadian domestic taxation of trusts	36
2.15.2	Taxation of non-resident trusts	38
2.16	Taxation of trusts in New Zealand	38
2.16.1	The principles of the trust taxation method in New Zealand	39
2.17	Trust-like entities	42
2.17.1	Trusts according to the continental method (Switzerland) – Fiducie	42
2.17.2	Trusts in Liechtenstein	43
2.18	The trust as a corporation	46
2.19	Offshore trusts as will substitutes	47
2.19.1	Special characteristics of foreign trusts	47
2.19.2	Problems taxing foreign trusts and accepted solutions	49
2.19.3	Characteristics of beneficial tax regimes	50
2.20	Between trusts and inheritance	52
2.21	The main findings of the theoretical literature	52
2.22	Relevant global research and the Laffer curve	55
2.23	Recent research in Israel	57
2.24	The impact of fiscal policy on investments in OECD countries	58
Chapter Three: The Economic Significance of Trusts		61
3.1	The economic meaning of trust funds	61
3.2	Who do foreign trusts serve?	61
3.3	The principles of taxation of trust funds today in Israel	63
3.4	The reasons for a foreign (American) resident creating a foreign trust fund	65
3.4.1	Why are trust funds preferred to offshore investments?	66
3.4.2	The clear disadvantages of creating a trust fund	67
3.4.3	A case of a clear advantage to create a Trust Fund	68
Chapter Four: The Research Methodology		72
4.1	The research approach	72
4.2	The research population	73
4.3	The Delphi group research method	73
4.3.1	Versions of the Delphi method	74
4.3.2	The procedure for choosing participants	76
4.3.3	The theoretical framework	77
4.3.4	Summary of the method	77
4.4	The research field	78
4.5	The research objective	78
4.6	The research question	78

4.7	The relevance of the research	79
4.8	The research tools	79
4.9	The qualitative research	79
4.10	The quantitative research	79
4.11	The research process	80
4.11.1	Data gathering	80
4.11.2	Data processing methods	80
4.11.3	Reliability and methods of validation	81
4.12	Research ethics	81
4.13	The research limitations	82
Chapter Five: The Research Findings		84
5.1	Summary of the qualitative research – open questions	90
Chapter Six: Discussion		97
6.1	General	97
6.2	The main findings and their discussion	97
6.3	Discussion of the impact of government investments	100
6.3.1	The impact of government expenditures and tax burden on growth in Israel	100
Chapter Seven: Summary, Conclusions and Recommendations		102
7.1	Summary	102
7.2	Conclusions	104
7.3	Recommendations	106
7.3.1	Principles of the combined solution	108
7.3.1	Principles of the combined solution	108
7.4	Recommendations for further study	108
Bibliography		109
Appendices		115
Appendix 1: The research questionnaire		115
Appendix 2: Income of tax authorities – January to December 2005		121
Appendix 3: Tax authority income 2004-2005 and real change rate each month versus parallel month previous year (NIS billions)		122
Appendix 4: State income from taxes (NIS billions)		123
Appendix 5: Gross National Product 1995-2005		124
Appendix 6		125
Appendix 7: The distribution of the Consumption over the last Decade (1995-2005)		126

List of Illustrations

Graph no. 1: Expenditure for social services (including development budgets) – 2005 (in NIS billions).....	1
Graph no. 2: Development of social spending as a percentage of government spending (without return of debt): 1980-2004 .....	2
Graph no. 3: The indirect tax burden as a percentage of the GNP globally, 2002 .....	3
Graph no. 4: Distribution of state income for 2005 (percentages) .....	3
Graph no. 5: Decrease in direct taxes 2010 vs. 2005.....	4
Graph no. 6: Decreasing corporate tax rates to 25% .....	5
Chart no. 1: Discretionary Trust/ Common Law Trust.....	32
Chart no. 2: Foundation (Panama).....	47
Chart no. 3: Growth rate per capita .....	53
Chart no. 4: Principles of taxation of trust funds today in Israel .....	64
Chart no. 5: Advantages of taxing trusts .....	70

List of Tables

Table no. 1a: Distribution of respondents on the topic of taxing foreign trusts and foreign investors .....	84
Table no. 1b: Distribution of respondents regarding taxation of foreign trusts and foreign investors .....	85
Table no.1c: Distribution of responses regarding taxing foreign trusts and foreign investors .....	86
Table no. 2: Matrix of correlations between the research variables .....	87
Table no. 3: Matrix of correlations between items in the research questionnaire .....	88
Table no. 4: Matrix of correlations between research questionnaire items .....	89
Table no. 5: Comparison of tax laws of different countries .....	107