The "Combined Solution" to Taxation of Foreign Treaties in Israel

by

Daddy Yacov

2003
The "Combined Solution" to Taxation of Foreign Trusts in Israel

Submitted to
Prof. Ivan Belyacz

by
Daddy Yacov

2008
Table of Contents

Acknowledgements ........................................................................................................... I

List of Illustrations .......................................................................................................... V

List of Tables ..................................................................................................................... V

Chapter One: Introduction ................................................................................................. 1

1.1 Pros and cons of taxation of foreign trusts ................................................................. 7
  1.1.1 The pros of taxing trusts ....................................................................................... 7

Chapter Two: Review of the Literature ........................................................................... 9

2.1 Preface ....................................................................................................................... 9

2.2 A survey of the situation worldwide .......................................................................... 9

2.3 Tax evasion solutions – Trusts and tax havens ......................................................... 10
  2.3.1 Profile of an investor in tax havens ...................................................................... 10

2.4 Foreign trust funds and tax havens as added value .................................................. 11
  2.4.1 Lists of tax havens ............................................................................................. 11
  2.4.2 Additional lists .................................................................................................... 12

2.5 What is a trust? ......................................................................................................... 13

2.6 Tax avoidance trusts ............................................................................................... 14
  2.6.1 Problems with trust assets .................................................................................. 14
  2.6.2 The trust as a corporation .................................................................................. 14
  2.6.3 Reasons for creating trusts ................................................................................ 14

2.7 Types of trusts ......................................................................................................... 15

2.8 Trust usage in private banking ................................................................................ 18
  2.8.1 Holding of financial assets in a private bank ...................................................... 18

2.9 Legal solutions ........................................................................................................ 19

2.10 A comparative review of trusts worldwide ............................................................ 19
  2.10.1 The situation in Israel compared to other countries ........................................... 21
  2.10.2 A global survey of the handling of tax planning ............................................... 22

2.11 Taxation of trusts in American law ........................................................................ 25
  2.11.1 Types of foreign trust income subordinate to American taxation .................... 26
  2.11.2 Additional issues ............................................................................................. 27
  2.12 British law ............................................................................................................. 27
  2.12.2 Taxation of local trusts under British law ......................................................... 29
  2.12.3 International taxation of British trusts .............................................................. 33

2.13 South African trust taxation ................................................................................... 34
  2.13.1 Interpretation according to general law ............................................................. 34
  2.13.2 Two possible obligations ................................................................................ 34

2.14 Taxation of trusts in Australia ............................................................................... 35
  2.14.1 Interpretation of basic concepts according to general trust law ....................... 35
Table of Contents

Chapter Two: The Taxation of Trusts

2.14.2 The definition of trustee ........................................... 35
2.15 Taxation of trusts according to Canadian law .................. 36
  2.15.1 Canadian domestic taxation of trusts ....................... 36
  2.15.2 Taxation of non-resident trusts .......................... 38
2.16 Taxation of trusts in New Zealand ................................. 38
  2.16.1 The principles of the trust taxation method in New Zealand 39
2.17 Trust-like entities ....................................................... 42
  2.17.1 Trusts according to the continental method (Switzerland) – Fiducie 42
  2.17.2 Trusts in Liechtenstein ........................................ 43
2.18 The trust as a corporation ............................................. 46
2.19 Offshore trusts as will substitutes .................................. 47
  2.19.1 Special characteristics of foreign trusts .................. 47
  2.19.2 Problems taxing foreign trusts and accepted solutions ... 49
  2.19.3 Characteristics of beneficial tax regimes .................. 50
2.20 Between trusts and inheritance ...................................... 52
2.21 The main findings of the theoretical literature ................. 52
2.22 Relevant global research and the Laffer curve .................. 55
2.23 Recent research in Israel ............................................. 57
2.24 The impact of fiscal policy on investments in OECD countries 58

Chapter Three: The Economic Significance of Trusts

3.1 The economic meaning of trust funds ................................ 61
3.2 Who do foreign trusts serve? .......................................... 61
3.3 The principles of taxation of trust funds today in Israel ........ 63
3.4 The reasons for a foreign (American) resident creating a foreign trust fund 65
  3.4.1 Why are trust funds preferred to offshore investments? ... 66
  3.4.2 The clear disadvantages of creating a trust fund .......... 67
  3.4.3 A case of a clear advantage to create a Trust Fund ........ 68

Chapter Four: The Research Methodology

4.1 The research approach .................................................. 72
4.2 The research population ................................................ 73
4.3 The Delphi group research method ................................... 73
  4.3.1 Versions of the Delphi method ................................ 74
  4.3.2 The procedure for choosing participants .................... 76
  4.3.3 The theoretical framework ..................................... 77
  4.3.4 Summary of the method ......................................... 77
4.4 The research field ....................................................... 78
4.5 The research objective .................................................. 78
4.6 The research question .................................................. 78

---

III
List of Illustrations

Graph no. 1: Expenditure for social services (including development budgets) – 2005 (in NIS billions) .......................................................................................................................... 1
Graph no. 2: Development of social spending as a percentage of government spending (without return of debt): 1980-2004 .............................................................................. 2
Graph no. 3: The indirect tax burden as a percentage of the GNP globally, 2002 ........... 3
Graph no. 4: Distribution of state income for 2005 (percentages) .................................. 3
Graph no. 5: Decrease in direct taxes 2010 vs. 2005 ......................................................... 4
Graph no. 6: Decreasing corporate tax rates to 25% ......................................................... 5
Chart no. 1: Discretionary Trust/ Common Law Trust ...................................................... 32
Chart no. 2: Foundation (Panama) ...................................................................................... 47
Chart no. 3: Growth rate per capita .................................................................................. 53
Chart no. 4: Principles of taxation of trust funds today in Israel .................................... 64
Chart no. 5: Advantages of taxing trusts .......................................................... 70

List of Tables

Table no. 1a: Distribution of respondents on the topic of taxing foreign trusts and foreign investors ............................................................................................................ 84
Table no. 1b: Distribution of respondents regarding taxation of foreign trusts and foreign investors ............................................................................................................ 85
Table no.1c: Distribution of responses regarding taxing foreign trusts and foreign investors ............................................................................................................ 86
Table no. 2: Matrix of correlations between the research variables ................................. 87
Table no. 3: Matrix of correlations between items in the research questionnaire ............ 88
Table no. 4: Matrix of correlations between research questionnaire items ................. 89
Table no. 5: Comparison of tax laws of different countries ............................................. 107