

PTE Diaspora Project Network

Lecturers for the Hungarian Diaspora Platform

The leadership of the Diaspora Project Network at the University of Pécs (referred to as PTE DPN) calls for the lecturers of academic institutions and organizations nationwide and abroad to join the Lecturers for the Hungarian Diaspora Platform (hereinafter referred to as LHDP, Platform). The Platform aims to create long-term, mutually beneficial and sustainable scientific cooperation in which its main objectives are the following:

- Training and talent management for students of Hungarian identity, so that they become role models and useful members of the Hungarian community,
- Teaching Hungarian as a foreign language,
- Strengthening the new generation of researchers and lecturers, which contributes to the renewal of research and teaching staff for Hungarians beyond borders,
- Definition of joint initiatives and innovation programs in areas of research, and cooperation in the exploration of Hungarian scientific and cultural legacy on an international level,
- Organization of resource-generating activities to reach jointly defined objectives,
- The coordination of communication within the network,
- Regular consultation and thematic forums held on the topics mentioned above at the Platform's meetings.

Private persons wishing to cooperate with the Lecturers for the Hungarian Diaspora Platform of PTE Diaspora Project Network, in achieving these objectives can join by signing a declaration of intent.

Pécs, 8 June, 2018

dr. Jarjabka Ákos
PTE Diaspora Project Network
Representative of Rector