RESEARCH INTREST AND PROJECTS

Project Name	Title	Responsibilities
The complex accounting system	“Evolution, resilience and future of the complex accounting system”	Looking at the accounting system as a complex system - micro, macro, and global stage in four dimensions - to identify and monitor external and internal drivers, and impacts, and to examine the evolution and resilience of the complex accounting system.
Financial Reporting Quality	Assessing the quality of the financial reports from several perspectives	Accounting reports are a structured set of data made available by companies to their environment based on central regulations and requirements, which can serve as a basis for stakeholder decisions. In this context, the quality of accounting reports and their examination is a central issue.
Accounting and controlling professionals - past - present - future	“Requirements and expectations”	Research aimed at identifying the expectations of prospective employees entering the labour market, especially students of economics, regarding accounting and controlling jobs, as well as the requirements of employers regarding accounting and controlling jobs, focusing on the utilization of the acquired accounting knowledge and its adequacy. It also examines the prestige of accounting professionals.
